

The Pass'Cité card

To feel free in Nantes!

Take advantage of the last innovation in services suggested by Nantes International Convention Centre : the Pass'Cité Card.

Our Pass'cité* programm provides the participant of an event with special services which makes their transfert pleasant during their stay in Nantes, furthering non-polluant public transport use.

⇒ free access to the public transportation of the city.

Free access to the public transportation network

Thanks to the Pass'Cité card, your participants, exhibitors, partners will be able to use public transportation freely from the day before to the last day of the event without buying any ticket :

- on the outstanding network of buses , tramways and BusWays that runs straight to the Nantes International Convention Centre.
- the closeness of the Nantes International Convention Centre to the city centre.
- on the Nantes-Atlantique Airport shuttle.

* In partnership with Nantes Métropole within the scope of the city transportation system.
